

InASA Membership & JAS Subscription

InASA aims to serve as a meeting point for scholars, teachers and all others with intellectual and scholarly interests in Australian issues. InASA brings Australianists from across the world together through informational networks, publications and conferences.

Membership includes:

- Biennial subscription to the Journal of Australian Studies (8 issues)
This is the easiest and cheapest way for individuals to subscribe to JAS

To minimise the environmental footprint, all members' subscriptions to the Journal of Australian Studies will, by default, be electronic. If, however, you wish to receive a hard copy of the journal, please tick this box.
